Foreword

Created by so few for so many, Horizons is the summary of three years of trials and tribulations spent at B. H. S. Between these covers are captured the spirit of your school. On these pages are recorded the fragments of your year. This book is bound with your laughter and imprinted with your hopes for the future. You will see more in these pictures than we could express in words, for they are portraits of you, the essence of Berwick High. This is your diary, your calendar, and your almanac -- the 1966 Horizons.

Ed,
To a very nice young gentleman from P. S.
I know you will be successful in all your future endeavors take good care of "that Evas girl".
Alice Cierlitsky

Dedication

To Mrs. Alice Cierlitsky and Mr. Edward Berlin we, the class of 1966, dedicate this yearbook. For your unselfish devotion and tireless assistance as our class advisors, we wish to express our heartfelt "thanks".

The memories of the projects we undertook together, and the success achieved in all of them will never be forgotten. As we look back upon our high school years, we will truly realize that your guidance and wise counseling have helped to prepare us for our future HORIZONS.

Alma Mater

Berwick High School, Alma Mater
Loving mother of our youth
Ever tender, ever watchful,
Teaching honor, duty, truth.
Loyal voices swell the chorus
Alma Mater, B.H.S.
Berwick High School, Alma Mater
Tho' for years from thee we part,
Yet the mem'ry of thy guidance
Will be cherished in each heart.

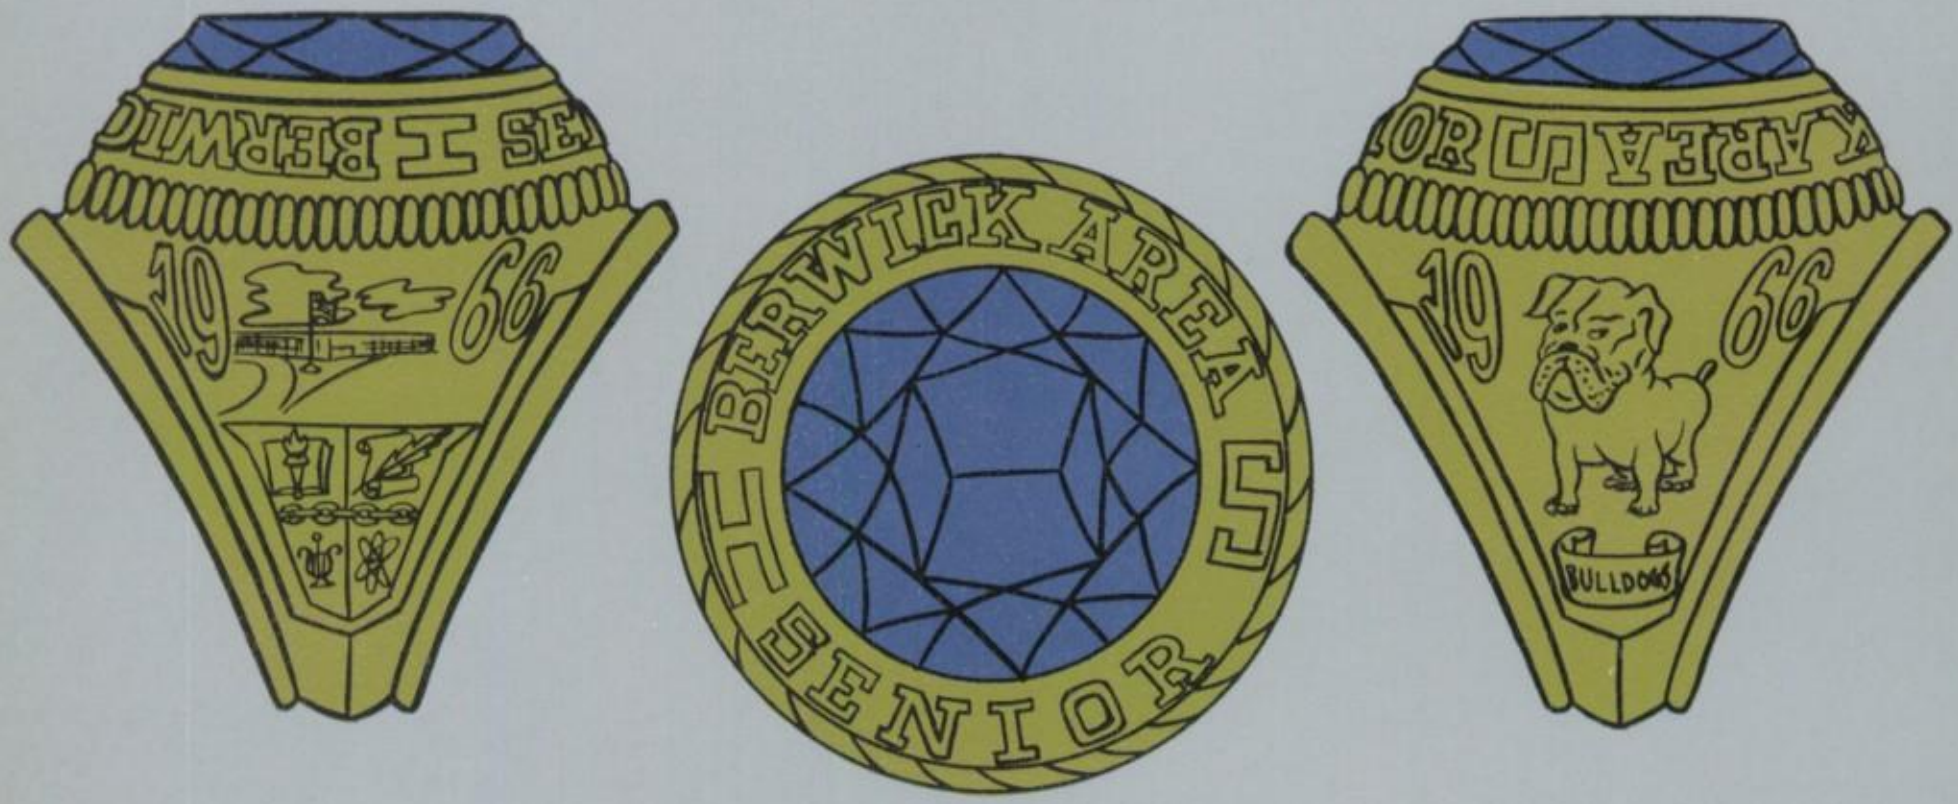
Class Ring



The Berwick High School Ring

The ring was specially designed for Berwick Area Senior High School by Josten. As sophomores we formed a committee to pick a standard ring which would be given to each class following for the next five years.

Students could pick any color they wished for the stone, but most of them picked navy because it is included in the school colors. The initials and year of graduation of each student are imprinted on his ring.

The ring is engraved with the Shield of Learning, which is a symbol of education, a facade of the school and the Bulldog — our school mascot.

Class Poem

Now that solemn time is here
A class has faced it every year
From these halls we must depart
And leave with them a bit of heart.

We all remember times before
When class and school were little more
Than mere simple names
Now it isn't quite the same.

Through our hectic Sophomore year
When the end was not so near
To sell our cards was all we sought
And no one gave the end a thought.

In June we saw seniors go
Down the aisle they walked so slow
Some scoffed at their reluctancy
They smiled and said, "Just wait and see."

Junior were we one and all
All for one and one for all
For '66--do or die
Make tradition was our cry.

So there came another June
And we realized that quite soon
"Our" time to walk that path would come
Our high school years would soon be done.

Our class must shine among the best
We cannot stop, we cannot rest
For '66 must take her place
In the lead of every race.

In every field our class excels
From every member spirit swells
To be the best of all by far
Without a single blotch or mar.

Slowly are our days now closing
As they have for those before
Berwick High School we are learning
Students soon we'll be no more
A Sophomore, Junior, then a Senior
How can three years go so fast
One an all our class must leave here
But our memories long will last.

Lyrics By James Boyd

Now our class must soon depart,
From this school we hold so dear;
Must our high school days,
Fade to memories.
One and all we pray to God,
That inside our hearts they dwell
As long as we live,
Never die.
Live on in our hearts we ask you;
Even though from your halls we go.
Through our lives stay with us always.
Guide our steps wherever they go.
Now our time to go is come,
From these halls we hold so dear.
We must face a world,
Full of strife and fear.
In that world to make our mark,
Bringing honor to our school;
For our Berwick High,
For B. H. S.

Guidance

And where would we be without guidance? At sometime or other, guidance is a part of B.H.S. for every student no matter who he may be.

The great task of Mr. Ermish in providing individual attention to many students each day cannot be considered a mere thing. The prime objective of this program is to place students in courses that will best aid them in their chosen vocations and professions.

We the class of "1966" wish to extend our thanks to Mr. Ermish for all the effort and time spent with us these past three years in helping us to attain our greatest possible development.

Mr. Heller, assistant guidance director, and Mr. Ermish give Doug some first hand advice on his college-bound future.

"Don't worry. I'm sure you'll do fine," says the officer to Louanne.

Drivers' Education

As ever, Driver Education is a popular, interesting, and educational course offered at B.H.S. The aim of this course is to teach the driver the correct methods of driving.

There are two periods a week offered in actual driving and two in the theory of driving.

Theory consists of student discussions of the automobile, the parts, and the safety precautions and hazards while on the road.

After the student has completed this course and providing he has passed his motor vehicle test, he is eligible for reduced insurance rates.

"Drivers' Education can be very interesting!" Just ask John Zeart and Jon Tucker as they talk to Debbie Schecterly.

American History
World History and Culture

In our ever changing world a good background in social studies is a vital part of our education. In order to protect our rights and to instill liberty throughout the world, a basic concept of democracy must be obtained.

As students at Berwick High School, we have received the general knowledge of past and present governmental problems. The fundamentals of our government and of other forms of government have instilled in us a feeling of greater love for our country.

World History and Culture, which is given in the sophomore year, gives an overview of man from prehistoric times through the ancient and medieval civilizations to our twentieth century. In the junior year American History reviews the course of the United States from discovery through the present time. Seniors study Problems of Democracy, which deals with modern economic, political, and social problems.

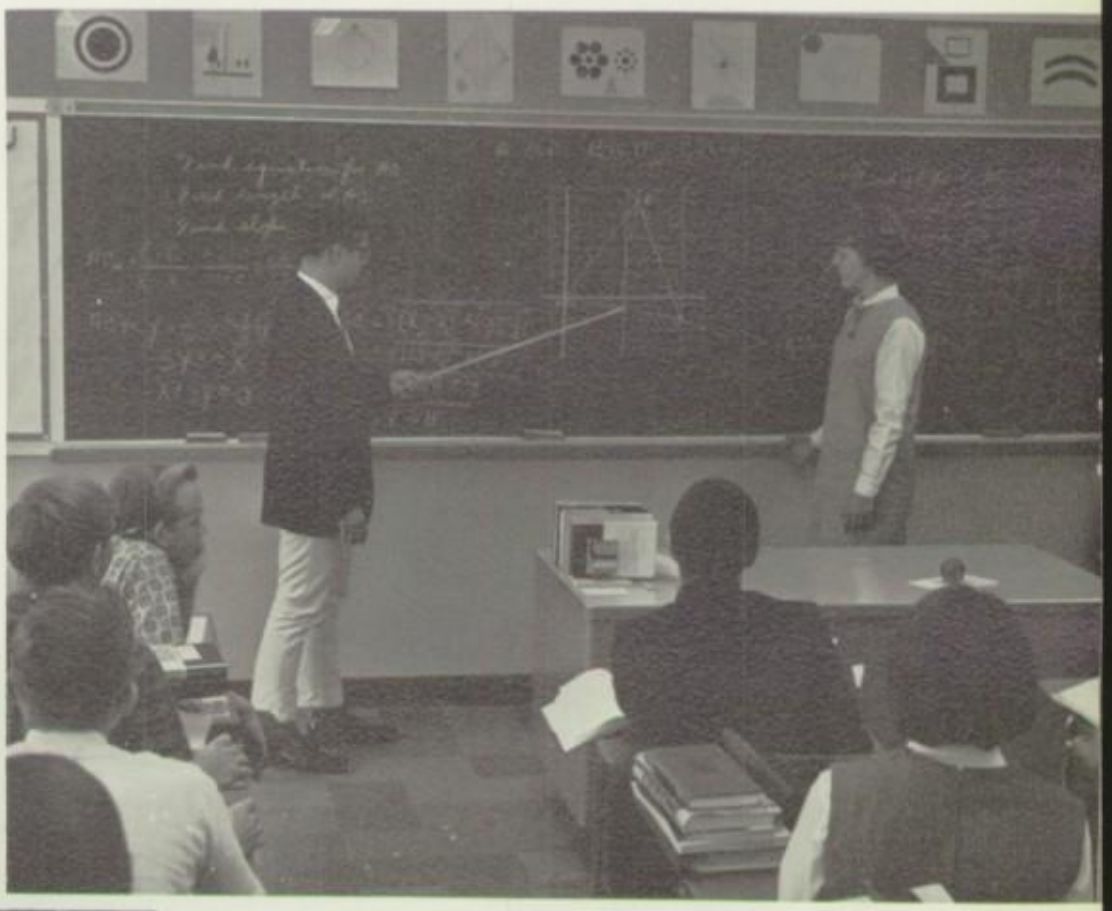
Calculus

The students of Berwick High School are very fortunate to have an opportunity to prepare themselves for the use of mathematics in college, or their chosen field.

This year, a new sequence in some of the math courses was established. Incoming sophomores took Plane Geometry instead of Algebra II. They will pick this up in their junior year. In addition to Advanced Math, Calculus was also offered to seniors.

All students enrolled in the Vocational Industrial Course are required to take Vocational Math. General Math I and II are available for those interested in the fundamentals of mathematics.

Thus the students of Berwick High School are being excellently prepared in Mathematics, a subject so essential in everyday life.



Nick Dubil and Christine Cook are doing an analytic geometry problem as a basis for calculus.

Library

Berwick Senior High School has one of the most comprehensive libraries in the region. Its shelves contain 7300 books, of which 5300 are non—fiction. In addition, there are a great number of reference magazines on file for the students use.

The most valuable books in the library are the encyclopedias which are familiar to all students.

Developing the art of reading is also a function of the library. The librarian acts as a guide in selecting books and the students are encouraged to borrow books on all subjects and read for entertainment and pleasure during their free time.

The library seats sixty students, enabling a large number to benefit from its use daily.

Interested students are given the chance to learn the function and operation of a library by working behind the desk.

Speech Correction

Speaking is a challenge which should be met head on by everyone.

Speech has always been the most applied form of communication, and in our world communication plays an ever increasing role.

To communicate with one another we must learn to express ourselves, but some of us are hindered by a speech impediment, many of which could be conquered.

In our school, under the capable supervision of Miss A. M. Margaret H. Richards, we have the opportunity to improve and correct our speech.

Miss Richard's job is a very important one. When one learns to speak properly one uses this facility to its fullest extent. Also, by expressing one's opinion, a person is given a more interesting view of life.

We are fortunate in Berwick High School to have such a valuable course.

English

Time passes quickly from Sophomore English to the conclusion of English Literature. With the passage of this time the knowledge and appreciation of the English language are enriched greatly.

Sophomores are enlightened by the readings of Ben Hur, Silas Marner, and A Tale of Two Cities. With the study of Julius Caesar the passion for Shakespeare's works grows. American Literature is then studied through its various stages of national development. Red Badge of Courage, Idylls of the King, and Merchant of Venice are but a few of the many great works studied in American Literature. English literature extending from Chaucer to Shaw completes a comprehensive study of England's masters. Out-of-class reading assignments of Jane Eyre, School for Scandal, and Pride and Prejudice gave the students a chance to comprehend and interpret these works by themselves.

And so our language is traced from the Anglo-Saxon period to the Twentieth century. Aside from the acquired knowledge, the key to unlock the heritage of centuries is gained----the desire to read.

Betty C. Henrie
Girls' Health Education

"Hmmm. . .let's see, 170 notebooks X 96 pages per notebook X 2 notebooks per student per year = 32,640 pages of student work to correct," contemplates Mrs. Henrie as Pat Ashworth and Andrea Martin steady the mountain of notebooks.

Girls' Health

A former Educational Policies Commission of the American Association of School Administrators held that the educated person (1) understands the basic facts concerning health and disease, (2) protects his own health and that of his dependents, and, (3) works to improve the health of the community. This philosophy for good health has long been and continues to be an aim of education. Our senior high school girls' Health Education course is truly geared to perpetuate these principles of good health.

Health Education is a required course given three periods per week for two semesters. Most students fulfill this requirement during the eleventh grade. The many facets of health instruction are presented in a variety of interesting ways: resource personnel; films procured from the Department of Public Health; student participation in practical work; seminars; question and answer intervals; notebook construction; Health Science projects; distribution of pamphlets from many health agencies; experiments; models, and oral reports.

Mrs. Henrie, who is certified in the Health Sciences and who is also a certified Red Cross First Aid and Home Nursing instructor, made it possible for health students to earn certification in standard Red Cross First Aid and Home Nursing. Through the highly utilitarian logic of this course, each student has been helped to wider horizons of enriched experience.

Insufflation is being administered to the life-size mechanical dummy loaned to the Health Department by the Bell Telephone Company. As Mrs. Henrie watches Joan Mackinson administer mouth-to-mouth respiration, Mary Spiecher inflates the dummy and Betty J. Henrie makes the sanitary lip papers.

Boys' Health

One of the most valuable courses in the high school is the health course which is required and is given during the junior year. In order to qualify for graduation from high school, the state requires a passing average.

During the first half of the year, the First Aid Textbook is used. This text, prepared by the American Red Cross, is a good reference in case of accidents or emergencies. The second half of the year is occupied with a study in home economics, home nursing, and personal hygiene.

Teams, consisting of two boys, were appointed by Mr. Ratamess. Throughout the year he instructed each team in the practical application of such life saving processes as artificial respiration, bandaging, and care of the sick.

Visual aids also make it easier for the boys to realize that Health is Wealth.

While the rest of the class looked on, Andrew Jurbala applied the Back Pressure Arm Lift Method of artificial respiration to Frank Hook while Barry Reynolds demonstrated the Shaffer Method on Curtis Steward and Rick Knorr administered the Mouth-to-Mouth Method to John Kishbaugh.

Languages

Clarissa B. Hidlay
French I, II, III
Spanish I, II

The students at Berwick High School are fortunate to have the opportunity to select from five different language courses. Courses are available in Latin, German, Russian, French, and Spanish. Because the graduating class of 1966 was offered Spanish I in the ninth grade, it was possible for these students to have studied four years of this language.

Learning of the people, customs, and history of the countries in which these languages are spoken enhances the courses and makes them even more interesting. The use of modern teaching techniques and texts assures the student he is receiving the best possible instruction.

The mastery of a foreign language is not an easy task for it takes extensive concentration and study, but with the guidance of our capable language teachers this mastery can be possible.

Science

The students at Berwick High School are very fortunate in having a well-rounded and out-standing science department at their disposal.

Biology I is offered to those students who express an interest in the study of the life processes of plants and animals. Biology II is offered to a limited number of senior students. This course probes into a more detailed description of the scientific theory and development of life.

In Chemistry, the basic knowledge of the composition and properties of the various elements and compounds is acquired. Each chemistry class is required to hold a laboratory period twice a week.

Physics is the study of the various concepts of motion, matter, and forces. Laboratory experimentation gives the students a chance to express and then to prove their problems.

Senior Science is a general science course which presents a knowledge of basic facts from a combination of the sciences.

The scientific knowledge gained by those taking these courses prepare many for college, and for others, a more informative concept about the world in which we live.

Business Education

The Business Course, which is given to a student for a three year period, is considered the best in this area. This curriculum consists of the following courses: Shorthand I and II, Typing I and II, Bookkeeping I and II, Business Mathematics, Business English, Business Law and Office Practice. All of these subjects give a general understanding of the business and economic system.

With the purchase of many new machines the business students receive an education of skill and efficiency. They are also coached in the development of personality traits, manners, and good grooming.

As a whole, the Business Department offers to the business and college bound students a complete and well-rounded program.

Vocational Home Economics

The aim of the Home Economics Department is to train young women in all phases of home making which will meet their needs of today and of tomorrow.

The curriculum in Home Economics is composed of six areas: child care and guidance; personal, family, and community relationships; family clothing; family health and safe living; food for the family; and housing for the family.

Home Economics taught as a vocational course involves two periods a day or as an elective, one period a day.

The department is well equipped with attractive suites of rooms with modern conveniences. Under the capable guidance of Miss Shaffer, the girls receive a modern course in managing a home.

Vocational Industrial

This department is divided into four main divisions: Carpentry, Machine Shop, Auto Mechanics, and Sheet Metal Shop. The object of these divisions is to train and prepare students for successful future employment in skilled and semi-skilled trades.

When a student elects the Vocational Industrial course, he obligates himself to a schedule which requires one-half of his time in the shop and one-half in his required academic classes. Drafting is part of the required program for each student in the department.

With the trend toward a post high school technical education, graduates of this course will possess an experience gained while in school. This coupled with employment will better qualify them for further training in trade and technical education if they so desire.

We are proud of our Vocational Industrial Department, and we are sure that every student upon graduation will be a success in his chosen trade.

Girls' Physical Education

Madge Jones
Girls' Physical Education Aide

Helping the student to build a healthy body, both physically and mentally, is the chief aim of the Physical Education Department.

The physical training course at Berwick High School is compulsory during every student's three year attendance.

Many activities are included in this well-balanced program such as: softball, basketball, volleyball, and table tennis; various gymnastic skills; track and field events; and rhythmatics.

Under the direction of Mrs. Betty C. Henrie, who is assisted by Mrs. Madge Jones, our students receive the best possible physical fitness program.

Boys' Physical Education

Physical exercise gives the students the fit, trim bodies they will need in the future. Therefore, the boys at B. H. S. receive a vigorous course in physical education under the direction of Adam Sieminski.

To strengthen and develop their muscles, the boys are permitted to lift the weights in the weight room. Other training includes: softball, basketball, volleyball, various gymnastic skills, track and field events, and calisthenics.

To develop the body of the young is the aim of physical fitness programs throughout the country, and at B. H. S. this aim is fulfilled.

One of the main factors of public speaking is not to fear the presence of an audience.

Public Speaking

If a student finds himself at a loss for words in front of an audience or finds it difficult to project his voice, he should elect the public speaking course.

Under the directorship of Mr. Nash, each student receives the proper instruction for oral presentations and, then, puts these instructions to use by means of a speech or an oral reading in class.

To speak well is to express oneself well, and public speaking aims for this achievement.

Music Appreciation

Music Appreciation is one of the newer subjects at Berwick High School, under the instruction of Mr. R. R. Llewellyn. All phases of music and the biographies of many famous men of music are studied in order to instill an appreciation of music in the students.

The students also receive a little practice in composing music and writing lyrics. Because of the variety of subjects discussed, this course has been well received by all students interested in the study of music and by others who merely enjoy music as a pastime.

"Does anyone recall who wrote, 'The Unfinished Symphony'?" asks Mr. Llewellyn.

Art

Art is all about us in every walk of life. The secret is to learn to appreciate it. Under the proficient supervision of Mrs. Englehart, this very thing can be accomplished.

This course may be taken in all three years of high school. Throughout these years the elements of art, line, color, form, and texture are explored as a means of expression. Also many techniques are developed, and experimentation with various media is encouraged.

Art is a field of many opportunities. Students who are exceptionally gifted in art are encouraged to enter into its numerous professions.

Nurses' Suite

High School Nurse

This year Berwick High has a new nurse to head our Nurses' Department, Miss Carol Hill. We all miss the friendly smile and advice given by Mrs. Fedin, but Miss Hill is carrying on in fine style.

Our Nurses' Suite is a very important part of our building for it is here that we have our eyes and ears checked annually and our physicals in our junior year.

Healthy students make school more productive thus ours should be one of the best, due to this fine department.

This past year has been another great success for the journalists of their staffs. By living up to the High ideals of journalism, informing and entertaining the faithful readers, this success has been achieved.

The staffs are fortunate to have as their advisor a former newspaperman and current English Literature teacher, Mr. Harwood Rhodes.

It takes "nerves of steel" and great perseverance to meet those deadlines, and many staff members will agree to this fact readily.

Band

The Berwick High School Band, under the direction of Professor Llewellyn, has completed another successful year of fine entertainment.

The band proved their fine talent and marching ability when they performed at the football games and local parades. The West Scranton - Berwick gridiron contest, which was televised, was our band's first television appearance, and it brought much praise to our high school.

Every day the band begins practice at 7:30 A. M., and sectional rehearsals are held after school. This organization certainly achieves its high standards by long hours and hard work.

Thanks for the applause!

"A breach! A breach for Grand Fenwick!" cried Tully as the soldiers charged in on Professor Kokintz with their make-shift battering ram.

"Your sandwich from the delicatessen. Pastromi, and if you'll excuse the expression, with Russian dressing," states Mrs. Reiner, Professor Kokintz's faithful housekeeper.

"Mother," cried Tully as he embraced her, while Gloriana looked on.

Dramatics

The work chosen for the senior play this year was "The Mouse That Roared." Mr. John Fletcher directed this play, assisted by student directress, Anne Aimetti.

The script began in a forest of Grand Fenwick, a microscopic country that practiced the isolation policy. Its whole income was drawn from the sale of a wine with an unusual bouquet, Pinot Grand Fenwick. When a California winery began to undersell the Fenwickians, who still pressed grapes with their bare feet, they decided that the only way to divert bankruptcy was to declare war on the United States. The plan was to be defeated so that Grand Fenwick would benefit from the generous treatment of the United States gives her vanquished enemies.

The young sovereign of Grand Fenwick, Gloriana the Twelfth, was portrayed by Holly Dietterick. Opposite Holly was Jim Boyd as Tully Bascom, forest ranger and leader of the expeditionary forces against the United States of America. The entire casts' efforts were rewarded by a very successful senior class play.

"When you idiots slammed the door you took ten years off my life. Professor Kokintz warned us to walk softly when we cross over the dungeon."

The mad rush before the curtain opens.

"Steady men!"

"Tully, Tully Bascom!" cries Ann, a peasant girl of Grand Fenwick, who treads on grapes as her part in the manufacture of the great wine.

"I'd also like to inquire concerning the prisoners you captured."

Future Teachers of America

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America Club is to prepare its membership for future teaching careers by presenting them with the pros and cons of the teaching profession.

Mrs. Betty C. Henrie serves as advisor for the club. The meetings are held the first and third Monday of each month after school.

The biggest money making project of this past year was "slave duty" in which the members engaged in various tasks as shoveling snow, lawn raking, and car washing, with all the proceeds going to the club. Induction of officers and members was held in November in an impressive assembly. Cadet teaching day was observed in April, giving each member an opportunity to practice teaching in the classroom. Also in April, delegates were sent to the National F. T. A. Convention in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Varsity Club

The Varsity Club, under the advisorship of Mr. Adam Siemenski, is composed of all athletes who have received letters in any one of the many sports offered by our school.

The principle objectives of this club are unity and better sportsmanship among the athletes and experience in providing better co-operation between the school and the community.

The two outstanding, successful projects with which we associate the Varsity Club are the selling of fall football programs and the presenting of the spring gym show.

The officers of the Varsity Club are: Jim Boyd, treasurer; Wally Garrison, president; John Zeek, secretary; Craig Shotwell, vice-president.

The officers of the National Honor Society are: seated--Connie Keller, secretary; Paulette Carlson, vice-president; standing--Mr. Carleton Ermish, advisor; Ann Aimetti, president; Dave Mittleman, treasurer.

National Honor Society

Maintaining an average of 90 or above in six subjects throughout the year is required for the privilege of joining the National Honor Society. It is fitting that those students with outstanding scholastic ability should be organized and recognized.

The society serves not only as a means of honoring students with an excellent average, but, also, creates an incentive to other students to achieve grades good enough to entitle them to join this organization.

Student Government

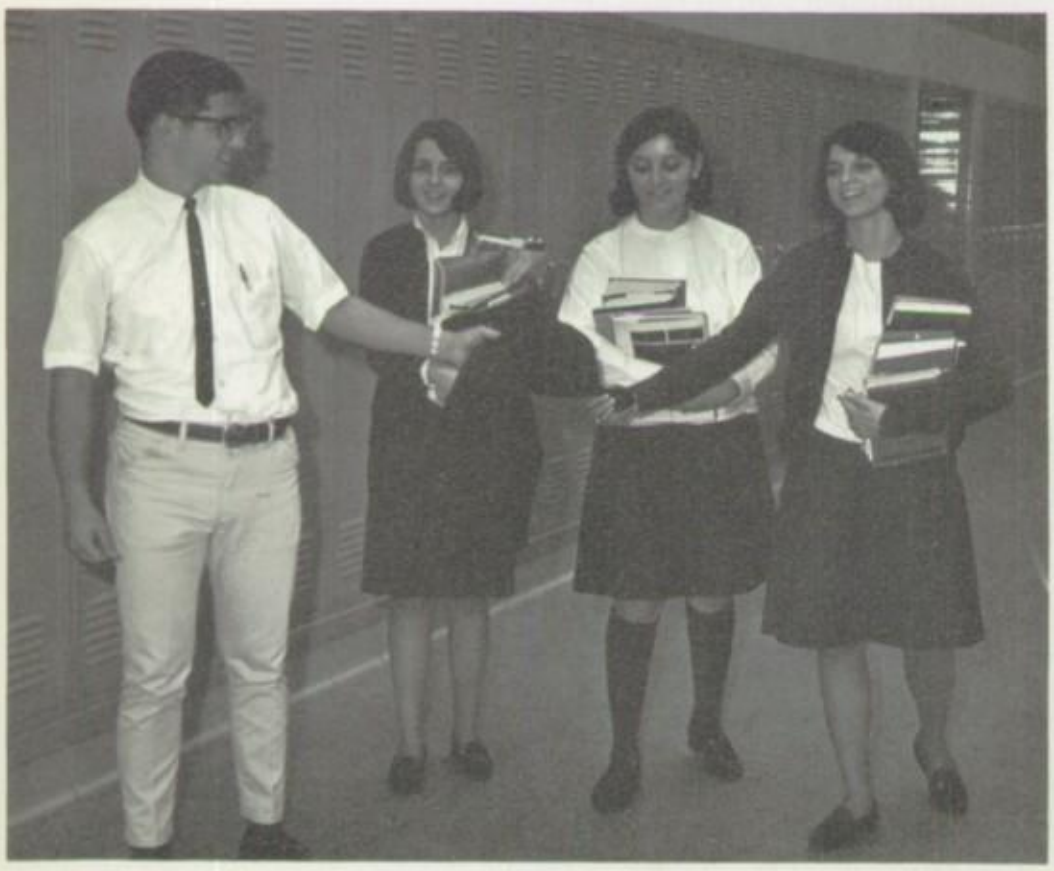
This organization is the nucleus for all school programming. Under the capable advisorship of Mr. Ermish and Mrs. Henrie, the group sponsors and presents many interesting school activities.

The Student Government members are elected at the beginning of the year in their respective homerooms. A representative and an alternate are selected to attend regular meetings which are held throughout the year. The representatives then report to the students the functions of the council.

One of the most spectacular events held by the Student Government is Homecoming, when our king and queen are honored along with their court.

This democratic group works hard to insure the students an expert and efficient administration throughout the year. They follow the typical American policy and beliefs, and give our future citizens their just opportunity to practice leadership in our "great society."

Whether their interest is Shakespeare or Fleming, they are sure to find it at the Student Government bookstand.



Keeping to the tradition of Slave Day are the officers: Nick Dubil, president; Sharon Berbick, secretary; Maria DeFebo, vice-president; Julie Mazzochetti, treasurer.

"Look, Mom! We're on TV!"

Audio-Visual Club

The Audio-Visual Club, which was formed three years ago, is under the advisorship of Mr. Ratamess and is affiliated with the School Projectionists Club of America.

The purpose of the club is to train students in the care and operation of all visual aid equipment. Included in this area are the ordering and setting up of films, projectors, recordings, and other aids available in the school. The Audio-Visual Club is of great benefit to the teachers and various organizations of the school.

"Now, boys, have you all set up a film?" asks Mr. Ratamess.

A-V-Ettes

During each school term a group of 10 to 15 young women students in the eleventh grade Girls' Health Education classes are trained by their teacher, Mrs. Betty C. Henrie, to operate audio-visual equipment. This year the group elected to form a permanent organization at the suggestion of one of its members and adopted the name, A-V-ettes, which was mentioned by a class member. Mrs. Henrie agreed to be the advisor and teacher for the training organization.

The volunteer students, two or three representing each class section, met for instructional periods several Friday evenings from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. The selected candidates must complete the audio-visual training phase before they can be recognized as bona fide members of the A-V-ettes.

Standing are the officers of the A-V-ettes: Mrs. Henrie, advisor; Betty J. Henrie, president; Judy Hill, vice-president; Sue Butler, secretary; Kay Cerullo, treasurer. Members front row are: Judy Carpenter, Joan Glasser, and Diana Sinibaldi. Second row: Jane DiPasquale, Francine Farver, Kathy Mazzochetti, and Darla Farver.

The officers are: Bonnie Yorks, treasurer; Susan Bower, president; Mrs. Berlin, advisor; Dolores Norce, secretary; andRosemarie Dubil, vice-president.

Keyettes

The Keyette Club of B.H.S., a service club, plays a definite role in our high school's program. It strives for the development of the educational, moral, civic, and social interest of its members and the advancement of the welfare of the community.

The Keyettes are sponsored by the Women's Civic Club of Berwick. The club consists of about fifty girls chosen on the basis of high scholastic average, citizenship, and character traits.

Many money-making projects are conducted by the Keyettes throughout the year. These projects include dances, bake sales, the sale of shakers, bows, and confetti at football games, and the sale of yearbook covers. Also, the club has an annual Christmas party for underprivileged children and outfits two needy children at Easter.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Barbara Berlin, club advisor, the Keyettes had a very successful year.

The Keyettes thank the Carlisles radio and television personalities, for a most entertaining assembly which was sponsored by the organization.

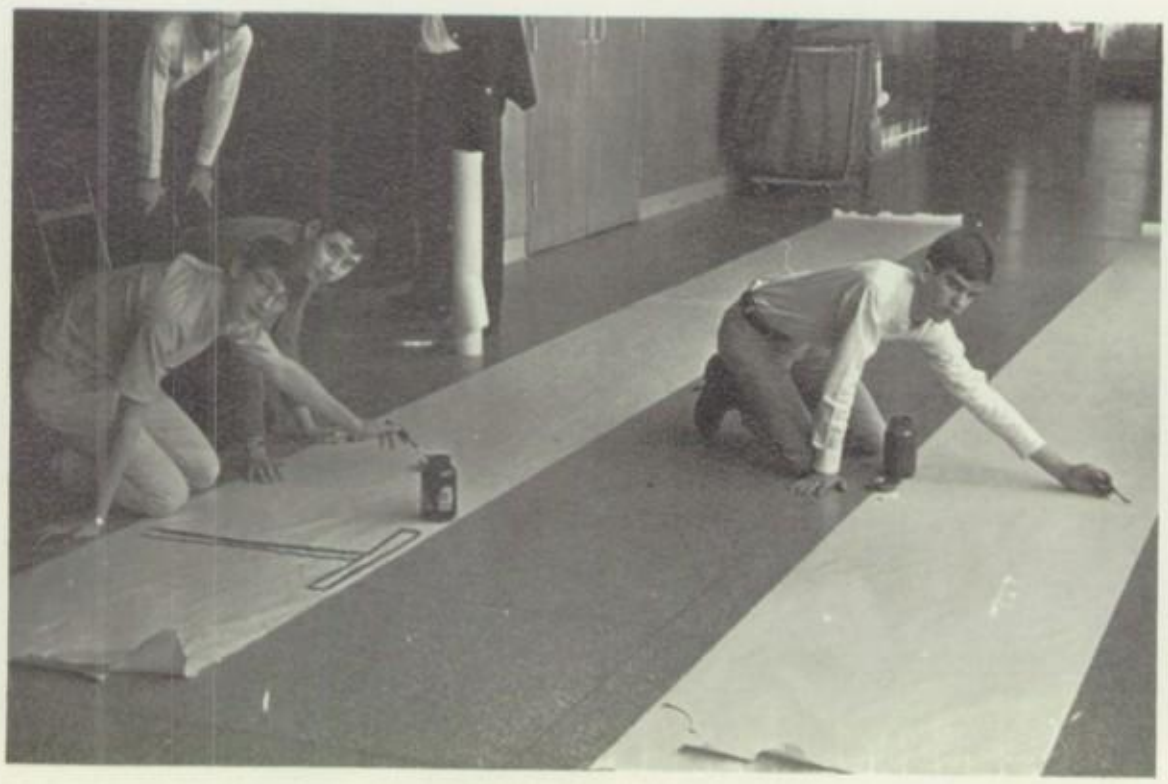
Key Club

Under the capable advisorship of Mr. Jeffrey Girton, the Key Club has completed another year of service to our high school and community. This organization, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Berwick, is one of the many clubs of Key Club International.

This year, as in the past, the Key Club members were kept busy helping with such worthy drives as United Fund, Muscular Dystrophy, and the Heart Fund. In addition to these services the club sponsored buses to school activities, held many money-making projects, and donated money to civic projects as well as to our school.

These boys have continued the tradition of the Key Club as one of the most successful and respected organizations at B. H. S.

The officers of the Key Club are: Alfred Dalberto, treasurer; Douglas Rhodes, president; Jim Shrader, vice-president; Mr. Girton, advisor; Nick Dubil, secretary.



"Zonk 'em Bulldogs!" The Key Club made signs to cheer our team on to victory.

The officers of F.H.A. are: Sandy Doebler, chairman; Betty Bobersky, chairman; Debbie Ross, chairman; Cathy Getty, treasurer; Cindy Davis, chaplain; Cindy Cope, chairman; Joyce Hons, president; Gayle Deets, historian; Sharon Yalch, reporter; Bonnie Yorks, Vice-president; Judee Waltz, secretary.

Future Homemakers of America

In many high schools throughout the nation there is a group of girls preparing themselves for future homemaking. These girls form a national organization known as Future Homemakers of America.

The aims of this fine organization are: to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, to provide wholesome individual and group recreation, to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership, and to encourage democracy in home and community life.

Miss Florence Shaffer, home economics teacher, aids and advises the girls in their fine activities.

Future Nurses of America

Many students interested in the field of nursing or other medical professions have applied for membership in the F.N.A. Under the advisorship of Miss Carol Hill, the members receive valuable information concerning the requirements, opportunities, and training in their future medical profession.

The activities of this organization are numerous and very successful. Among the projects undertaken were: a Sample Fair, an apple sale, and a field trip to a hospital and school of nursing.

Each month one senior girl is selected by the members of the club to represent them at a meeting of the Nurses Association. This girl is known as the "Nurse of the Month".

The officers of the F.N.A. are: Rosemarie Dubil, assistant secretary; Rosina Hess, vice-president; Betsy Kynik, secretary; Kathy Mazzochetti, treasurer; Shari Eglody, president; Miss Carol Hill, advisor.

Young Men's Chorus

The organization which expresses the vocal talent of our boys is the Young Men's Chorus. Under the capable direction of Mr. Frank Bertollo, this group has performed successfully at many assemblies and concerts.

The chorus devoted a regular forty-five minute class period of each day to the preparation and rehearsal of their musical numbers. Suzette Zaginaylo, an accomplished pianist and organist, accompanied the group.

Since the beginning of this school year, the chorus started their intensive work in preparation for the Thanksgiving assembly, the annual Christmas Community Sing, and their Spring Concert. The new participation of the group at home basketball games displayed their talent to many. They are surely a great credit to Berwick High School.

Officers of the chorus are: Bob Moore, secretary; John Zeek, president; Suzette Zaginaylo, accompanist; Douglas Rhodes, vice-president; Brad Oman, treasurer.

The officers of the Business Education Club are: Paulette Carlson, president; Mr. Bower, advisor; Ricki Fetcher, vice-president; Sharon Gunther, secretary; Jolene Biacchi, treasurer.

Business Education Club

The Business Education Club consists of all students enrolled in the commercial course. The advisor, Mr. William Bower, assists in planning many interesting programs.

Meetings are held monthly during school time. Lectures concerning different schools of higher education and their requirements are presented at these meetings.

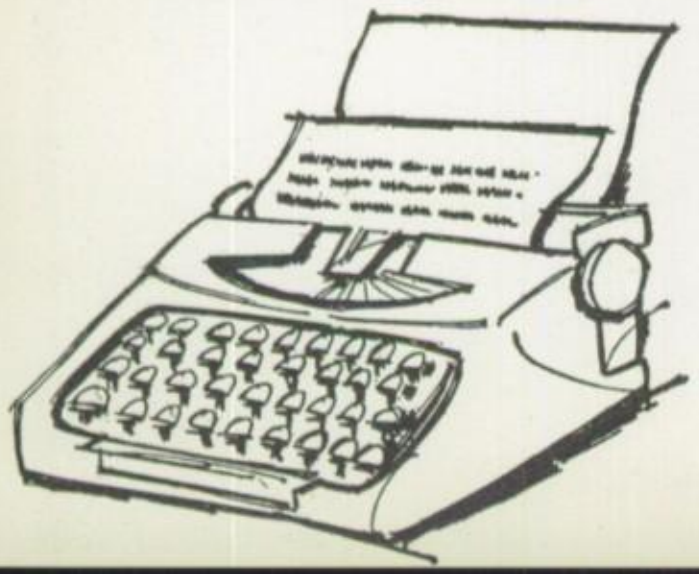
To realize the importance and to understand the many business schools is the main objective of this organization.

Future Secretaries of America

The Future Secretaries of America is a newly formed organization which is sponsored by the National Secretaries Association. F.S.A. is under the advisorship of Miss Carole Coolbaugh.

In order to qualify for membership to this club, one must be a female business student with an interest in the secretarial field. Good character traits and an 85 or above average must be maintained.

The objectives of the F.S.A. are: to stimulate interest in the secretarial profession, to develop a better understanding of secretarial responsibilities, and to provide a basis for better secretaries of the future.



The officers of the F.S.A. are: Florence Thompson, vice-president; Donna Kemmerer, secretary; Susan Knelly, treasurer; Paulette Carlson, president.

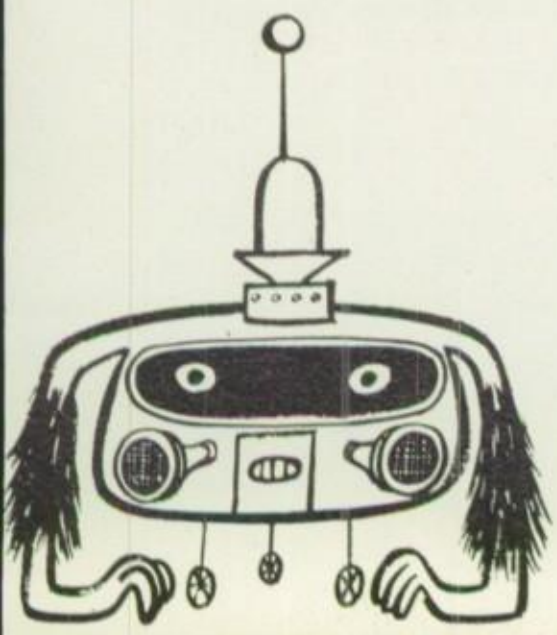
The officers of the camera club are: Mr. Nolte, advisor; Nick Dubil, vice-president; George Remensnyder, secretary-treasurer; and Doug Rhodes, president.

Electronics Club

Would you like to be a radio announcer or on T.V.? If so, join the newly organized electroncis club. This highly successful club, whose membership is open to both boys and girls, was under the direction of Mr. Foster.

The main object of the club is to learn the unique radio code. The group also works on a "ham" radio station and were assigned to do work individually.

The only qualification necessary to join the club, was an interest. The meetings were held every Thursday evening. Through the training received, these members hope to gain a bright future in radio and television employment or else just the pleasure derived from a very worth-while hobby.



Camera Club

This organization, under the capable direction of Mr. Nolte, is kept quite busy throughout the year taking pictures of all school activities. The club, also, takes pictures for "Horizons". Club members learn the techniques of taking pictures and the complete operation of developing and printing them. The success of this club in the past has given us many visual memories which we will always remember.

Ed,
Wishing the best of luck in the future to a real cool cat. Just remember all the classes we had together and "Bob"

Officers of the Electronics Club are: Mr. Foster, advisor; Terry Kolet, president; Steve Berbick, vice-president; Bob Price, secretary-treasurer.

Tri-Hi-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y is one of the largest organizations of the school. Under the direction of the local Y.M.C.A., it is very active in service to the school and the community. The club is divided into four chapters: Alpha, Beta, Delta, and Epsilon.

The separate chapter meetings are held twice monthly at the Y.M.C.A. Each club has an adult advisor. Following the business session, a program is often held.

Alpha and Epsilon have their own individual service and fund-raising program and projects, but many times Beta and Delta will join their efforts. During the Christmas season, however, the chapters combine their efforts to jointly sponsor the annual Sno-Ball dance, which is always a great success.

As shown by the club activities of the past year, the members capably fulfilled their motto "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character."

Beta

The officers of Beta are: Audrey Maloney, treasurer; Sarah Kreischer, secretary; Linda Weatherill, president; Diane Johnson, vice-president; Nancy Grifasi, chaplain.

Delta

The officers of Delta are: Joanne Cashman, treasurer; Cathy Getty, secretary; Sharon Gunther, president; Mary Decker, Vice-president; Bonnie Yorks, chaplain.

Alpha

Enthusiasm and school spirit are shown here as the Pep Club assembles along with the students for the annual Bloom-Berwick pep rally.

The officers of the Pep Club are: Marie Yalch, treasurer; Julie Mazzochetti, president; Maria Pellegrino, vice-president; Rosina Hess, secretary.

Pep Club

The Cheerleaders were assisted this year by a fine group of girls known at the Pep Club. They worked together to create and maintain school spirit at the athletic events of Berwick High School.

Ninety-five girls contributed their loud and cheerful voices to coax our team on to victory. Meetings were held once a week during which the girls practiced with the Cheerleaders so as to learn the cheers and routines.

With the dues of one-dollar and the profits made from an egg sale, they were able to purchase material for their shakers, Bulldog pins, and buses for the away games.

The Pep Club is truly an asset to our school.

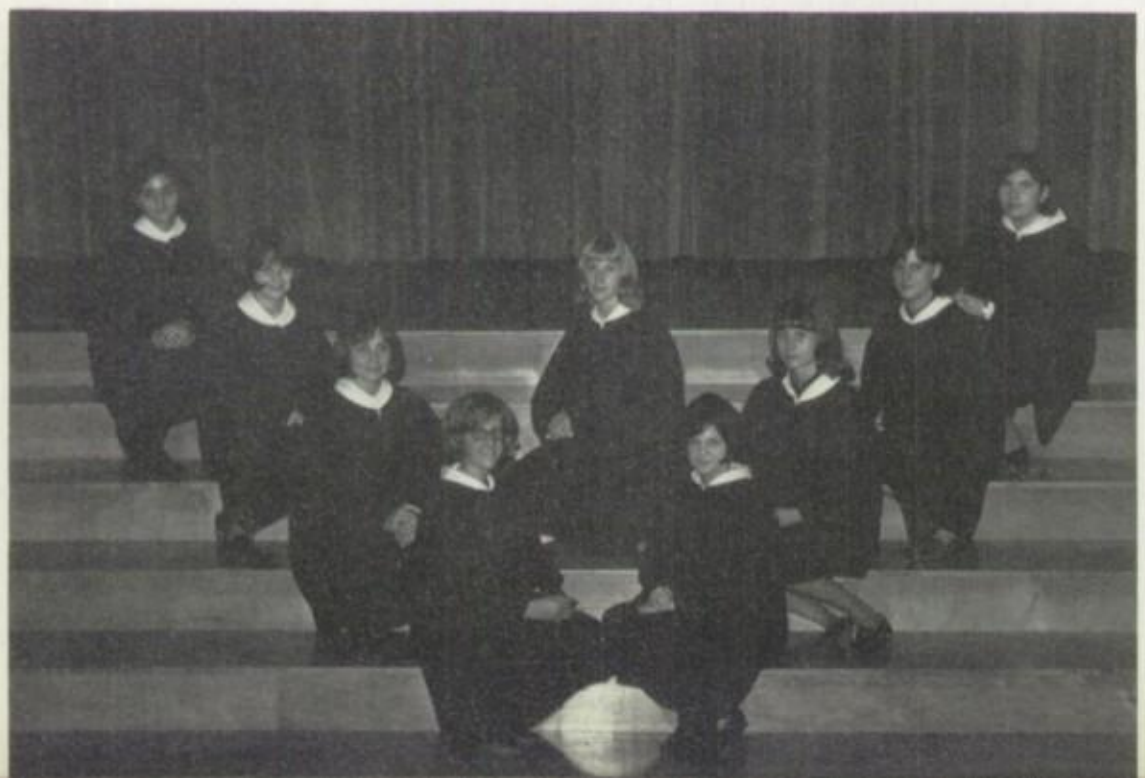
Russell R. Llewellyn

Girls' Chorus

The Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Professor Llewellyn, has completed another year of fine musical entertainment. This organization, consisting of approximately ninety girls, practices for an hour every day in preparation for the Thanksgiving performance, the annual Christmas Carol Sing, and the Spring Concert, which is the highlight of the year's work. As in past years, all of these engagements were well received.

The Modernaires, an extension of the regular chorus, sing for many school functions and various other clubs and organizations.

All in all the girls find that their long hours of practice are richly rewarding.



The officers of the chorus are: Nancy Grifasi, librarian; Beth Ann Valentino, pianist; Debbie Schuyler, secretary; Cathy Getty, vice-president; Paulette Carlson, president; Sally McNinch, treasurer; Christine Houck, pianist; Sarah Eves, publicity manager; Toni Lou Formando, librarian.

The qualifications for membership to this organization is to have the ability to swim and to acquire the lifesaving badge within a year after the student joins the club.

Under the supervision of its advisor, Don Dietterick, the club has prospered and performed many outstanding projects such as: managing a stand at the home wrestling matches, sponsoring victory dances after football games, the selling of carrots in the cafeteria, and instructing crippled children in swimming classes.

The combined efforts of the group and the advisor make this a highly beneficial and successful club.

Athletics

Football

The Bulldogs suffered through a hard luck season in 1965, and finished with a 3-6-1 record.

The team was in there trying all the way, but the breaks just didn't go their way. However, they added much excitement to the fall scene and we can hope for better things next year.

Ed. When it comes to hoping for joy and happiness, there couldn't be a nicer guy to deserve it. Well, just remember the fun in English and

Cross-Country

The 1965 Bulldog harriers garnered second place in the 5-team Valley Conference, posting six wins against 26-29 home and away losses to Mt. Carmel, with sprint finishes twice upsetting Coach Heller's charges against the Red Tornadoes.

Underclassmen Jim Smith, Mike Silvetti, and Eddie Johnson and senior co-captains Dave Major and Bob Herr were top performers all season long as the Bulldogs topped Central, Bloomsburg, and Milton twice, defeating Milton by a perfect 15 to 40 score over the Black Panthers' home course.

Non-league highlights included a close 25-30 opening loss to Williamsport's Millionaires, Varisty "A" and "B" perfect score wins over Weatherly; and Varsity "A" and "B" victories over Wilkes-Barre G. A. R., while losing to powerful Meyers High in a thru-way meet.

Seniors Joe Vezendy and Mark Piazza and underclass performers Lanny Conner, Bob Szabo, Sam Pellegrino, Karl Blake, and Scott Canouse, among the 32 team members finishing the season, contributed valuable second-line strength in compiling an overall Bulldog mark of 11 wins against 7 losses. Junior Bob Smith was the capable team manager.

The girls entered competition at Susquehanna University and came home with 8 medals. These eight medal winners went on to competition in Philadelphia. Mrs. Henrie was extremely pleased with the awards the team received even though this was their first year.

Betty Henrie jumping 3'11" thus becoming intramural champion for the high jump.

Cheerleaders

The main objective of a cheerleader is to instill within the student body a strong sense of loyalty and devotion to their school, to increase the attendance at games, and to obtain the cooperation and respect of the students. This job was successfully accomplished by our cheerleaders led by Captain Debbie Schuyler and Co-Captain Pam Ratamess.

This year, at the request of their advisor, Mr. William Golder, and through the willingness of the individual Cheerleaders, practices were held two or three times weekly during the summer. Also, two of the girls attended a summer camp for a week conducted by Bill Horan, director of the American Cheerleader's Association, bringing back to the squad a new spirit of discipline along with many exciting cheers.

This year's squad was an exceptionally cooperative one, and had much school spirit and ambition. With their rapidly-moving pep rallies and the hard work at all the games, these girls surely inspired the bulldogs greatly.

Even our loyal bulldog shows his spirit at one of the games along with our Cheerleaders.

All our thanks to this great squad of girls: Seniors: Holly Dietterick, Co-Captain Pam Ratamess, Captain Debbie Schuyler, Carla Eyer. Juniors: Angela Stevens, Suzette Zaginaylo, Beth Ann Valentino, and Linda Manetta.

Double arms up. Ready-O? Let's Go!"

THE STRAINS OF LEE VINCENT'S MUSIC DRIFTED THROUGH THE CHERRY BLOSSOMS TO THE ENCHANTING TEA HOUSE ON THE PATIO.

Homecoming

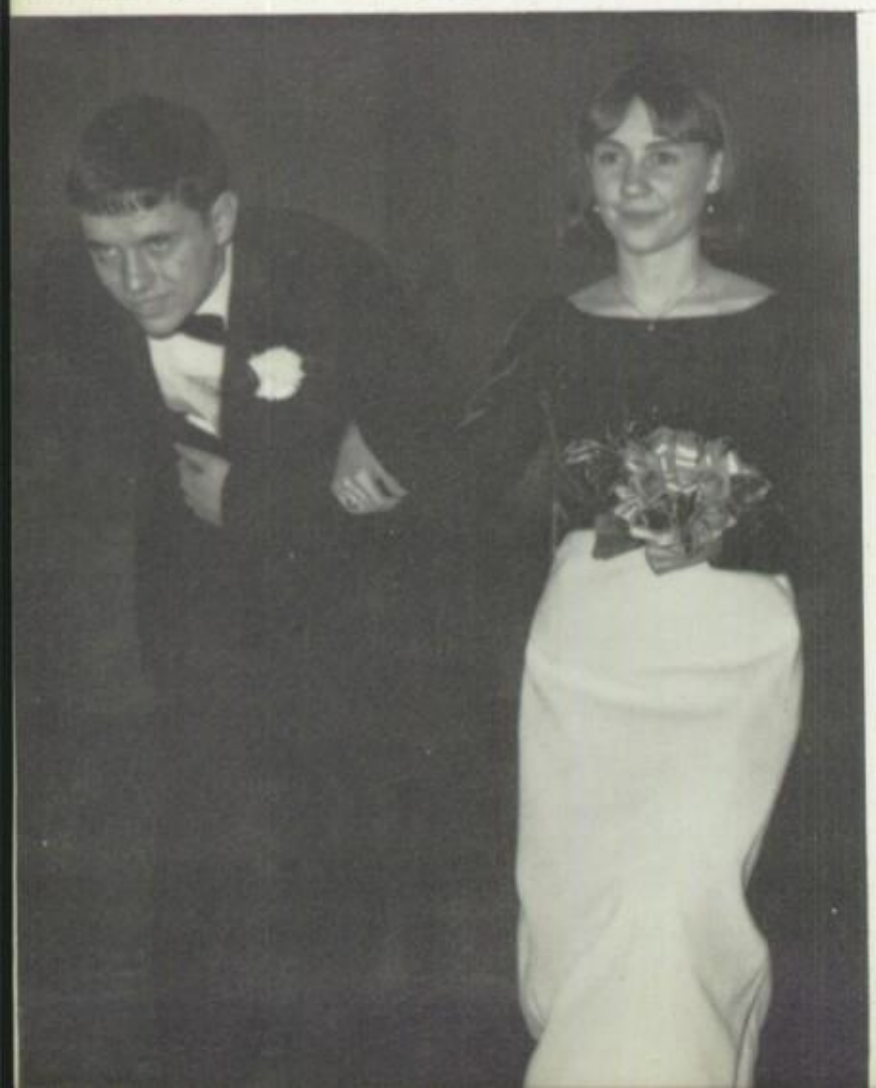
A coronation! How exciting. Yes, it was our annual homecoming ceremony at Berwick Senior High School.

The gymnasium became our enchanted castle. Last year's king and queen, Jim Green and Beth Anne Kupsky, began the procession followed by the royal couples: Princess Andrea Martin and Prince Brian Schuyler, Princess Holly Deitterick and Prince Jim Boyd, Princess Debbie Schuyler and Prince Joe Nespoli, and Princess Bonnie Yorks and Prince Wally Garrison. Each Princess was attired in a floor length gown identical to the other except for the bodice which was either emerald green or cranberry red.

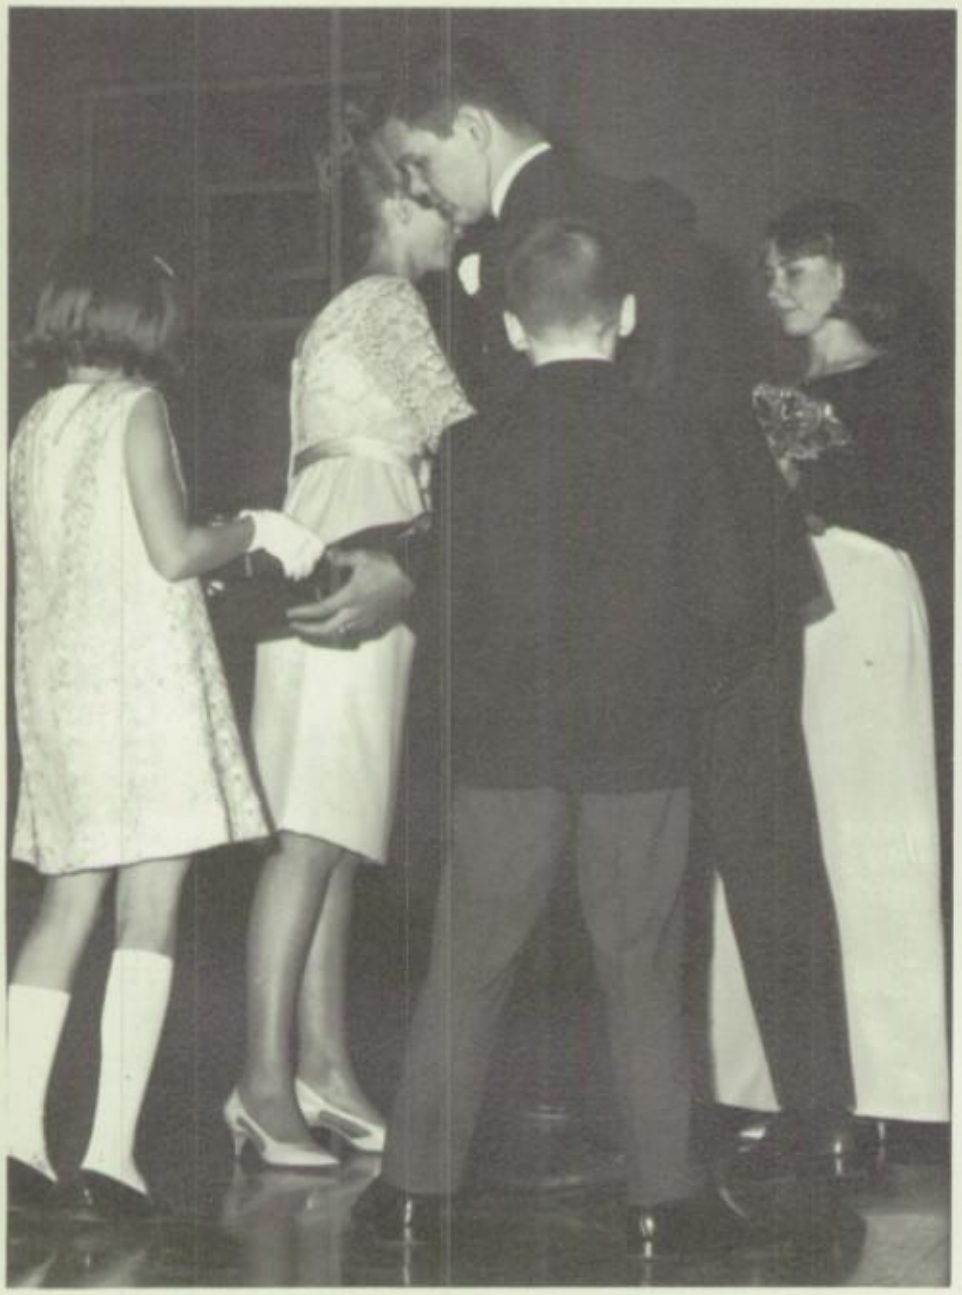
Anxiety was in the air as everyone sat on the edge of his seat, waiting patiently. Strains of majestic music were heard as Cathy and Ben made their way down the red carpet to the throne. As queen Beth Anne placed the crown on Queen Cathy's head and King Jim congratulated King Ben, we all knew that a new reign had begun.

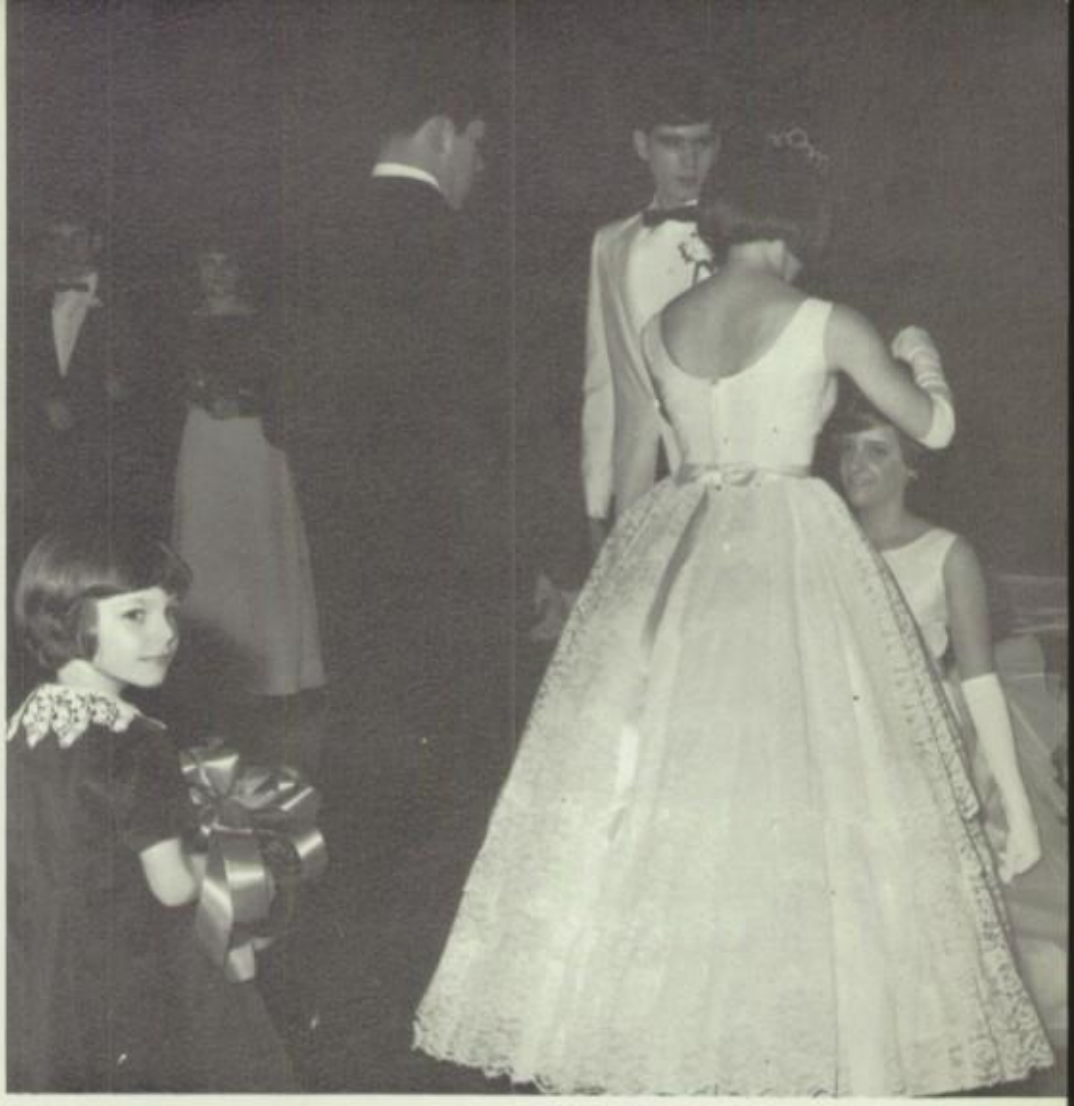
Following the coronation, a lovely ball was held. The music was by The Vibrations. This was a perfect ending to a wonderful evening.

Joe and Debbie bow graciously to the new king and queen before leaving the enchanted castle.



Beth Anne and Jim will always hold a dear place in our hearts.



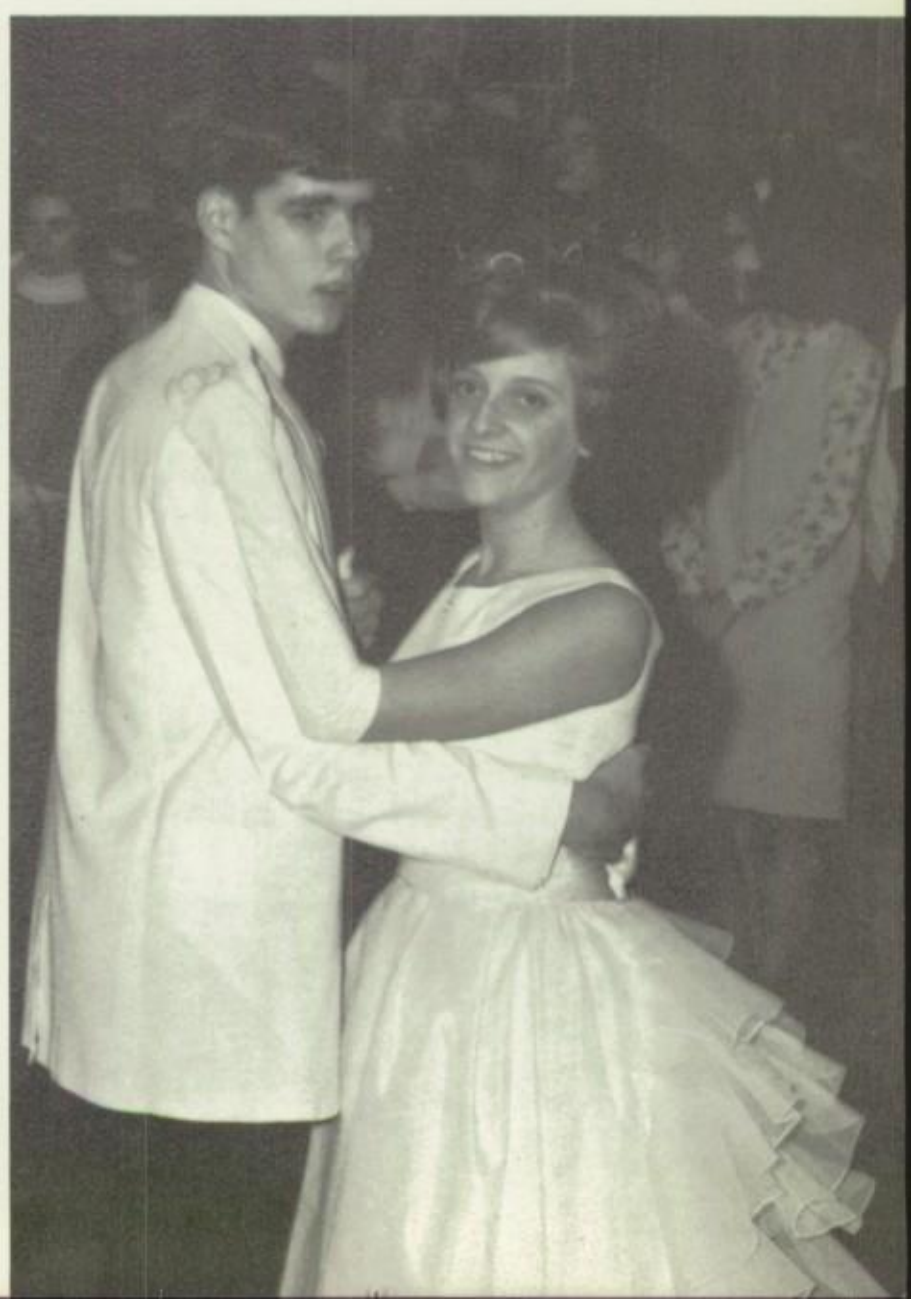


Silence prevailed as Beth Anne relinquished her crown and Cathy's reign began.

Sharon Gunther and Angelo Spezialetti, assisted by the junior gift-bearers, distributed the gifts to the court and the Royal Couple.

Cathy and Ben wait as the last couple leave the castle and end the coronation.

The perfect ending to an enchanted evening.



The sweetest couple at the Sno-Ball--Shelly Grozier and Mark Karms.

Sno-Ball

December 30, 1965--With a feeling of joy and happiness within everyone's heart the year of 1965 ended in a most wonderful way. The annual Sno-Ball, which is sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y Clubs made this possible.

Upon passing through the entrance a feeling of home with a fire glowing and a rocking chair entranced each and every couple. A Christmas tree made of snowmen, snow-sprayed picture windows, and neatly wrapped table packages added to the warmth of the picturesque scene.

In the dimness the starry-eyed couples danced to the soft music of "Pete Volpe and the Ambassadors" which extended to everyone Christmas greetings and happiness for a New Year.

Don't spill the punch, Steve!

The couples danced slowly to the music of "Pete Volpe and the Ambassadors."

Holly gazes wistfully at the beautiful ice pond.

Julie, Alpha Tri-Hi-Y president, is all smiles upon seeing the success of the affair.

The Best Is Yet To Be

WALSWORTH
Lithographed & Bound by
WALSWORTH
Marceline, Mo., U. S. A.

Flowers make nice gifts;
fruits, too, says Emerson.
But flowers wilt and if not eaten, the fruits get rotten.
A memory is the best gift —
it can never be taken away.
I have gained a rich treasury of memorys this year, they'll always be there for me to have.
Thanks.
and good luck to you Ed,
your strong character and determination will lead you wherever your wish.
You'll always remember BHS
and the class of '67 (yeh 67!!)
also — once in a while look back and remember
Me, too — Sara (Vic)
